Yes  No

If yes, please attach a list of first level Shaklee Family Members ONLY, by name and ID#, who will remain with each active former member and signed by the remaining members of the distributorship. Core group restructuring may not be accomplished by means of dissolving and reforming a Combined Distributorship.

NOTE: If the departing member(s) are holding more than 50% ownership of the Combined Distributorship, the Combined Distributorship may have to be dissolved and reformed again under a new F.E.I.N. (Use the Shaklee Dissolution of Combined Distributorship form.) This is not necessary for deleting a member from a corporation.

- More than 50% ownership remaining  Less than 50% ownership remaining
- Same name & F.E.I.N. (no additional paperwork is necessary)
- New name & F.E.I.N. A new completed Combined Distributorship Application must accompany this form along with the required information on the Combined Distributorship form. You must attach a copy of the IRS Notice of Federal Employer Identification Number Assigned or IRS Letter 147 Confirmation of F.E.I.N. sent to you by the IRS. The F.E.I.N. and account information you provide Shaklee should always match IRS records. If you change information with Shaklee, you must also inform the IRS and obtain new certification. Failure to do so may result in Shaklee having to withhold income tax from your bonus payments.

Deleting Member(s) From a Combined Distributorship

Requests for deleting member(s) from a combined distributorship (DBA's, Partnerships, Corporate Distributorships, Limited Liability Companies or Trusts) must be submitted in writing on the proper form to Shaklee, including the signatures of all departing members on record with Shaklee; and accompanied by $50.00 fee to cover administrative costs.

Parallel Sponsorship Lines

All deleted members remaining active will be reverted to the rank of Associate and placed Parallel to each other under the sponsor of the former Combined Distributorship.

If the former member is the adult child of a Business Leader (Member of the Combined Distributorship), the parallel rule will be automatically waived and the adult child will be placed vertically in the sponsorship line, directly below the parents' distributorship. Only the adult child or children (if a husband and wife team) will be moved. They may not take any additional Members or Associates with them unless a completed Reorganization Application is attached.

Division of First Level Shaklee Family Members

(Applicable to distributors who remain active and are NOT an adult child of a Business Leader)

A list of first level Shaklee Family Members only (any Shaklee Family Members below the first level will automatically go with the first level) listed by name and ID# who will remain with each active former member and signed by all remaining members of the distributorship, must accompany the Deleting a Member(s) from a Combined Distributorship form. Core group restructuring may not be accomplished by means of dissolving and reforming a Combined Distributorship.

Special Review

Shaklee reserves the right to review and determine deletions from Executive, Key and Master Coordinator Distributorships.
